

Will America survive its open border?

America's borders are an open door, through which terrorists and the world's deadliest criminals can come and go at will

An estimated 3,000,000 people illegally slip into America every year by crossing the Mexican border.

That's enough to fill 22,000 Boeing 737 airliners, or 60 flights every day. Our government has little or no idea who many of these people are. [Source: TIME, September 19, 2004]

It's estimated that 190,000 people illegally enter the U.S. through Mexico from such terrorist-producing nations as Afghanistan, Iran, Iraq, Egypt, Sudan, Bulgaria, and Russia. If just a few of these are al Qaeda operatives or terrorists, this would be enough to plan and implement a catastrophic attack with a Weapon of Mass Destruction.

Al Qaeda operatives and other terrorists may be able to get across Canadian border even easier. Canada's immigration laws are extremely lax. It's very easy for al Qaeda operatives to establish themselves in Canada first before slipping into the United States. Canada has shown little interest in the terror threat to the U.S. Al Qaeda cells are reported to be operating relatively freely in Canada.

At present, only 500 U.S. border control agents monitor the 6,000 mile U.S.-Canadian border. The U.S.-Canadian border includes thousands of miles of unwatched forest and mountains. Anyone can just walk across undetected.

A Deadly Threat to America

According to a report by investigative reporter Bill Gertz of THE WASHINGTON TIMES, "A key al Qaeda terrorism suspect was in Canada...posing as a student at McMaster University, which has a 5-megawatt research reactor...He is believed to be part of an al Qaeda cell in Canada and the United States that was planning a dirty-bomb attack...U.S. intelligence officials said earlier this year that al Qaeda planned to detonate a dirty bomb inside the United States." TIME magazine reported in its November 22, 2004 issue that al Qaeda has plans to smuggle nuclear material into the United States through Mexico, if it hasn't already done so.

In July of 2004, U.S. military veteran Glenn Spencer brought a simulated Weapon of Mass Destruction (WMD) over the border not just once, but twice. The first time, he didn't announce it, but the second time he publicly advertised when he would bring it across. And he did so successfully.

Slow-Motion Terrorism

But terrorism does not just come from al Qaeda and Muslim extremists. Many of the world's most violent criminals are crossing America's vast borders illegally.

In Los Angeles, 95 percent of all outstanding warrants for homicide (which total 1,200 to 1,500) are for illegal aliens. Up to two-thirds of all fugitive felony warrants (17,000) are for illegal aliens.

A confidential California Department of Justice study reported in 1995 that 60 percent of the bloody 18th Street Gang in California is illegal (estimated membership: 20,000). The gang collaborates with the Mexican Mafia on drug distribution schemes, extortion, drive-by assassinations, and is responsible for an assault or robbery every day in Los Angeles County.

More than ninety of our brave men and women who patrol our borders have lost their lives in the line of duty attempting to apprehend illegal aliens coming across our border.

Incredibly, our government is allowing more than half a million illegal aliens who have been convicted of additional crimes to remain in the U.S. rather than deporting them.

In cities where crimes committed by illegal aliens is highest, the police are often barred by local or state law from using their immigration status to arrest them.

Call your Congressman and two U.S. Senators at 202-224-3121. Strongly urge them to secure America's borders and stop illegal entry into the United States. Feel free to print, photocopy, distribute and post this ad
